ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

To be Given at Board of Trade Rooms by Dr. G. H. Perkins.

The committee in charge of the lecture to be given tonight at the rooms of the Willimantic Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, expect a large attendance. Mr. G. H. Perkins of Warren Brothers company, Boston, has given an entertaining talk wherever he has been heard, and the subject of the lecture, "Good Roads" with special reference to permanent pavements, is one in which nearly every one is interested. A large number of motion and acceptance pictures will be shown in connection with the lecture.

It has been rumored that the matter of starting another fair association may be brought up at a business meeting of the Board, held before the talk of the evening.

ment at Washington that Patrick D. Moran was the successful bidder for the contract of transporting the mails between the railroad station and the local postoffice. The amount of Mr. Moran's bid was $285, or about sixteen dollars a week. The highest ever paid for this work was $300 and the lowest $250.

Bids were received at this time because the extra work put upon the messengers throughout the country by the parcels post rendered their compensation too small, and about a month ago the government authorities gave notice of termination, and requested new bids.

The new tenderer will begin his duties Monday, Feb. 2, 1914. He was formerly a caretaker of St. Mary's cemetery.

JOINT INSTALLATION.

Officers of Councils Ste Cecile and Flourens Formally Seated by National President.

The installation of the officers of Councils Ste Cecile and Flourens at St. Mary's hall Sunday night was attended by several hundred and proved a most successful affair. The installation was conducted by Attorney Henri T. LeDoux of Nashua, N. H., national president of Union S. N. Jean Baptiste of American Legion, elected president of Danielson and Albertine Gagnon and Adolphe Duval of this city.

BANQUETED ORGANIZER.

Moose Lodge Had P. J. Fitzgerald as Their Guest.

About two dozen officers and members of Willimantic lodge, No. 144, Loyal Order of Moose, met Monday night and enjoyed a banquet at which the guest of honor was Organizer P. J. Fitzgerald, who leaves today for New Haven, stopping in Hartford for a short time.

Mr. Fitzgerald, in the four months he has been in this city, has organized a lodge of 400 and more members who are already planning to incorporate and own a home.

The affair Monday night was a farewell token of esteem to the organizer. It was held at the Johnson house and proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. The guests were singing and speeches and an all around good time, with the enthusiasm which has attended all of the Moose gatherings here. Those present voted it one of the pleasantest occasions it had of their privilege to attend.
